

Principles for appointing nomination committee for annual general meetings

These principles shall apply until a resolution regarding a change of the principles for appointing the nomination committee is resolved by the general meeting.

Prior to each annual general meeting the nomination committee shall consist of representatives for each of the three largest shareholders in terms of voting rights as of 31 August the preceding year based on the share register kept by Euroclear Sweden AB, whereby a group of shareholders grouped in the Euroclear Sweden system in this context is considered as one shareholder. Should one or several of these three shareholders choose to refrain from appointing a representative to the nomination committee, such right shall transfer to the shareholder(s) who in turn after these three shareholders has the largest shareholding in the company. The chairman of the board of directors shall be a co-opted member of the nomination committee.

The chairman of the board of directors shall convene the first meeting of the nomination committee. The nomination committee shall appoint one of its members as chairman, which shall not be a member of the board of directors.

If one or more of the shareholders that have appointed representatives to the nomination committee no longer are among the three largest shareholders at a time of more than two months prior to the relevant annual general meeting, representatives appointed by these shareholders shall resign and new representatives shall be appointed by the new shareholders who are then among the three largest shareholders. Should a member resign from the nomination committee before the work of the nomination committee is completed, and if considered necessary, the same shareholder who appointed the resigned representative has the right to appoint a new member. However, if this shareholder is no longer one of the three largest shareholders, a new member shall be appointed by the largest shareholder in turn.

Changes to the nomination committee shall be disclosed immediately. The composition of the nomination committee for annual general meetings must be disclosed no later than six months prior to the general meeting.

Remuneration shall not be paid to the members of the nomination committee. The company shall pay any necessary expenses that the nomination committee may incur in the course of its work.

The term of office for the nomination committee ends when a new nomination committee has been disclosed.
